MYOKYO

明鏡

(MYOKYO, the Bright Mirror of Buddha Dharma always illuminates our LIFE)

February 2018

Temple Mission Statement

"To offer those in the Pacific Northwest an enduring community that values inclusiveness and acceptance in seeking enlightenment."

Sensei's Message

Plateau of Light

Rev. Takashi Miyaji

Just recently, our temple observed Hōonkō, the most important service for our tradition. In that Dharma talk, I talked about how the nembutsu teaches us how to cry. How to cry? This may seem a bit odd and the expression itself may require one to say it a few times in his/her head.

Lately, we might often hear the expression, "Join us as we celebrate the life of so and so," referring to a funeral. In one video I saw, at a funeral the immediate family played loud and jovial music, saying, "This is what so and so would have wanted—a great big party. Rock on!" I was absolutely dumbfounded. "Preposterous!" I thought. Although I understand the feeling of wanting to remember the good and happy times we had with a loved one who has passed on, celebrating that person's life by trying to make it a fun and lighthearted event is simply denying reality. Suppressing one's emotions towards the issue of death only shows that one has not fully embraced life. Buddhism teaches that in each moment there is life there is also death. We cannot understand one without the other.

When I was a teenager I was once told that a man should not cry. Looking back on it now, to me, you are not even human if you do not cry. How can the preciousness of life and all it offers, not leave you to cry at some point in life? This is where the Nembutsu teaching has great significance.

In Shinran's works he often talks about a term called shinjin, which we translate as "entrustment." In many places, he explains shinjin as happiness and joy. He even uses the phrase, "to leap and dance with joy," literally meaning to dance spontaneously in knowing that one will be born in the Pure Land. But in other places he explains shinjin as having shame and sadness because one also awakens to the human condition of not being able to completely eliminate one's own attachments. Shinjin is therefore, an interchange between joy and shame, happiness and sadness, which results in an equilibrium state of serenity. In a brief moment, one is on a plateau that is embraced in light. When Shinran encountered this moment, he replied in the words Namo Amida Butsu, "How difficult it is to encounter (in other words, thank you for) this peace of mind which I would have otherwise never had known." Shinran cries both tears of joy as well as tears of shame and responds simply by saying, Namo Amida Butsu.

In today's world especially in the West, we might be inclined to reject or turn a blind eye to things that are not pleasing, fun, entertaining, or positive. I often have friends who tell me, "I try to stay away from negativity in my life," But have you ever tried smiling more than a minute for a picture? It hurts. Too much of a good thing is not healthy. Just as Śakyamuni teaches about the middle way, so too does Shinran hold highly the teaching of balance. When we understand this by receiving the teaching of the Nembutsu, we can be realistic in our approach to life and our approach to ourselves.

光の台地

この間、初めて皆様と共に報恩講の法要を迎えることができました。これは我々浄土真宗では最も大切な行事であります。その時のご法話で、念仏は私たちに「泣きかた」を教えてくださいとお話しさせていただきました。「泣きかた」？これは一体どういうつもりで言ったのかをもう少し詳しく説明したいと思います。

近頃、アメリカでは次のような表現をよく耳にすることがあります。それは、何々さんのお葬式の時に「〇〇さんの幸福だった人生を「お祝い」させていただきます」というものでした。またあるビデオをネットで見たら、お葬式の時に親族がまるでパーティをしているかのように大きな音量で音楽を流し、にぎやかな雰囲気を出そうとして、「〇〇さんはきっとこのようにして欲しかったでしょう！」と言っていました。別れた人との楽しい思い出を大切にしたい気持ちは分からないではないのですが、その最後の別れをパーティのようにするのはいかがなものでしょうか。「死」というものに対して誠実に向き合わなければ、かえって「生」が分からないということにならないのではないのでしょうか。念々刻々、常に「生」と「死」が伴うというのが仏教の教えであります。「死」がなければ、「生」というものが分かりません。この人たちにとってお葬式で泣くというのはよくないとでも思っているのでしょうか。

私はまだ小さかった時「男は泣かないもんだ」と言われことがあります。しかし今になって考えて見れば、泣けない人は「人」ではないと思います。人生の本当の大切さ、有り難さが心から分かれば、泣かないことはないでしょう。そこに念仏の教えに重要な意義があらわれるのであります。

親鸞さまはよく「信心<sup>しんじん</sup>」という言葉が使われます。これは、英語では「entrustment」というように訳しております。宗祖の書物には、信心<sup>しんじん</sup>について「慶<sup>よろこ</sup>び」や「幸<sup>さいわ</sup>い」などと言う言葉で説明されます。例えば、信心<sup>しんじん</sup>をいただいて「歡喜踊躍<sup>かんぎゆやく</sup>」、つまり喜びのあまりその場で踊りだすと表現されています。しかし、ほかのところでは、「恥<sup>は</sup>ずかしい」「悲<sup>かな</sup>しい」などで信心<sup>しんじん</sup>を説明されることもあります。つ

現在の社会特に西欧社会では、楽しくない、面白くない、ポジティブじゃないものを拒否する傾向があるのではないのでしょうか。私の友達の中でも、「ネガティブなものはできるだけ避けている」などとよく言う人がいます。しかし、一日中常に笑顔でおられるのはまず無理でしょう。釈尊が教えてくださいました「中道」と同じく、親鸞さまも人生の「バランス」というものに重点をおかれたのであります。これがお念仏の教えであり、そしてこれを通して私たちは人生に対して現実的に向き合えることができ、また「我」というものに対してでも誠実になれるのであります。合掌

Pres

We're well into the new year and have many things to look forward to.

Our Lot Development Committee has met and is already investigating options to develop our empty lot into something that could produce revenue for the Temple.

Many members enjoyed the New Year's party on January 7 which was also a great way to welcome Rev. Miyaji. Thank you to everyone to helped organize the party.

There's been a flurry of activity on the part of many members to help get him settled and oriented to the Temple, including work on the parsonage in preparation for his family's arrival. His Dharma messages have been interesting (as well as entertaining) and I look forward to hearing more. I am confident that he will serve our Temple well.

The start of a new year always brings other transitions. Lynrae Hubbell is now Treasurer, after serving as Pledge Administrator for 6 years. Ken Tanino is remaining on the Board for another year as Assistant Treasurer to support Lynrae as she picks up her new job. Tracy Ling is our new Pledge Administrator. Some Board members have shifted to different committees to provide better support for the work of the committees. As with any time of transition.....it takes time and patience for everyone to settle in with their new responsibilities without too many things falling between the cracks. Many thanks to everyone for their willingness and effort to serve the Temple in this way.

How can you help?? Your Board of Directors manages and oversees Temple operations and much of the work that needs to be done to support our Minister, his work, and the religious mission of the Temple. It's a big job and is being done by a smaller group of people than in the past. One of the reasons for the major Board re-design that happened about nine years ago was to spread out the work of the Temple. You can help by being a non-Board member of a committee. A few of our major committees cannot do their job without help from non-Board members such as Facilities & Grounds, Distribution, and BEC (Buddhist Education Committee). Take a look at the Board committees below, and if you have interest and skills that might be helpful – please contact the committee member.

Board Committees:

Administration: Merlaine Cook haleiwa0304@gmail.com
Manages input for all Temple calendars, Temple office.

Distribution/Outreach: Bobby Yotsuuye yotsuuye@outlook.com John Inge john@seainge.com Handles all mailings and emails send by Temple; publicity for Temple events, social media, website, on-line registration.

Events/Toban: Events - Richard Ling r\_k\_ling@hotmail.com Recruits chairs for our major fundraisers.
Toban – Mayumi Ikeda Organizes and oversees Toban monthly groups; notifications to Toban groups.

Facilities & Grounds: David Yotsuuye yotskendo@aol.com and Mike Shiogi mshiogi@comcast.net
Manages, organizes all the work having to do with repairs, upkeep, and improvement of the Temple buildings.

Membership: Jim Doyle james.a.doyle@ice.dhs.gov and June Weled Jweled1@mac.com
Responsible for recruitment and on-boarding of new members. Recruits new Board members.

There are many ways that members can help without serving on the Board. If you would like to get more involved but don't know how – contact me. One of the responsibilities we are particularly hoping someone would be interested in is:

How else you can help?.....

Host or Hostess for after service COFFEE/TEA HOUR: Hosting periodic coffee hours after service has been a great way for members and visitors to informally talk and socialize. We need someone who can host coffee hours and/or organize a group of volunteers to host coffee hours throughout the year (once a month or once every couple of months). Interested?... or for more info, please contact me at (253) 678-2891 or wfhamai@rainierconnect.com

Buddhist Women's Association News

It was so nice to see so many send Rev. Kakihara off to his new ventures. There were happy and sad tears as we watched him wave his final farewell to the Temple where he made his mark these past seven plus years. Everyone wished him well and some had already made plans to visit him in Japan. Ogenki de, Sensei!!

It was really nice to see so many in attendance at the Temple New Year's party!! Rev. Miyaji had the opportunity to meet many members and see some of our members' talents. It was a very nice beginning for our new year!

BWA Officers were also installed at the New Years' service. Thank you to Jim and Del for taking some photos of this event. It is exciting to think what 2018 may bring!

Thank you to the Kazuko, Yasuko, Thelma, Pauline, Brandon and Kenji who assisted Darlene to make delicious zenzai for our Hoonko Service. The dish was new to some and well received - especially the kinako and sugar dipped mochi.

Patti Wong, Donna Sasaki and June Akita will be representing our BWA at the 71st NW Buddhist Convention. Through a cabinet approval vote, Tacoma BWA did purchase a quarter page ad to support Spokane and we will also bring a "Doggie" Basket for their silent auction. Proceeds from the basket will be returned to our BWA. If you have any items or food that would make our basket 'doggie' appealing, please give to June by February 4.

Buddhist Education Committee News

Okay, I admit I cry when I watch Disney animated movies. It took many years before I could wave goodbye to my grandchildren without tears flowing down my cheeks. So, as I thought about our departing Rev. Kakihara, emotions overflowed. It reminded me of something that occurred a few years ago.

My childhood piano, the one that I learned how to play, the piano that gave me such joy through all my school years was pretty old. I had purchased a newer piano for teaching purposes. So, many years ago, I brought my old piano to the parsonage for the Fukumas, mainly for Mrs. Fukuma who liked to play the piano.

After the Fukumas returned to Japan, the piano sat in the parsonage garage for a number of years, and it was time to move it out of the way (I should have done that long before). I checked with my piano teacher friends, and one of them had a student who wanted to learn to play but did not have an instrument and did not have a lot of money to spend. They were thrilled to receive a piano, and I was thrilled that it would be in good hands and would be useful to another family.

Rev. Kakihara and I watched as the father and a friend loaded the piano onto the pickup truck with daughter in the cab, a big smile on her face. As the pickup drove away, I waved goodbye to "my" piano, tears streaming down my face. Something that I hadn't even had with me for many years was still so sentimental to me, I could hardly breathe, and couldn't stop crying. Rev. Kakihara was probably a bit shocked to see me so emotional, and he kept saying "it's okay, it's okay". That day I could not hide the fact that I was human, I have attachments, I could not let go of something that was "mine". Life can be so difficult if we hold on too tight!

So, with Rev. Kakihara leaving, as much as we don't want to say goodbye, we must do so. We thank him for all that he has accomplished and has taught us while in Tacoma. He has served our temple, our Northwest district and our BCA with distinction. It has been my privilege to have worked together with him through the BEC and Dharma School. And just think of what he will continue to accomplish as he returns to Japan and his home temple!

So, with the New Year, we turn the page and welcome our new minister, Rev. Miyaji, and eventually his lovely family in Japan who we hope to see in the not too distant future. He, too, will have many new ideas and much to share with all of us. As he begins to get to know us and the history of our beautiful temple, and as we get to know him and his eagerness to share the Dharma with us, we will have much to look forward to in the coming years. We are ever so grateful for this opportunity! Working side by side, let us realize the preciousness of the time we will share together as we continue to walk the Nembutsu path together.

Welcome to Tacoma, Rev. Miyaji!!!

Donna Sasaki

From Your Facility Committee

While the Allstate character Mayhem resolved to be nicer during 2018 our temple Gremlins, ever so ambitious and resourceful, have elected to name 2018 Year of Mayhem. In order to create synergy, they've even attempted to entice Mayhem into teaming up with them to wreck even more havoc for the Facilities Committee. Since I was so sure that Mayhem would succumb to the temptations of trouble-causing I kidnapped him and placed him in a matrix world where Mayhem thinks he is triggering a massive global catastrophe. Mayhem is in heaven while the Gremlins have been left high dry. In the meantime, the Facilities Committee will work to spiffy up the parsonage. Carpet cleaning, a new gas stove, new countertops, and cabinet resurfacings are on the late January to early February calendar. Tom Hubbell and Tony Gregg has been coordinating and sequencing all the elements of the kitchen projects. Please thank

Tom and Tony the next time to see them. Mike Shiogi is spearheading the carpet cleaning project. Mike is scheduling with the carpet cleaning company and leading a work crew to move the furniture. All the items will be moved off the carpet on February 11th and will be returned on February 12th. Please help as much as you can.

Every week Jeff Hiroo and Fred Pelger swoop in, pick up brooms, and send the dust packing. I've noticed that they've been migrating to my car where they rightfully suspect they're safe from harassment. Mike Shiogi, David Yotsuuye, Tom Hubbell, Tony Gregg, Rick Tanabe, and Del Sasaki never cease to attack problems that crop up at our temple. Additionally, Gary Ichinaga, Bob Yoshioka, and Tad Kajimura are tremendous assets on the Facilities team. Also, Kurt Osaka and Osaka Gardens continue to do a splendid job in our grounds upkeep.
